FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1890.

The late James Russell Lowell paid taxes on $47,000 worth of property and debts, and the amount of taxes, interest, and time to business that he did to literature, he might have added several figures to his fortune, but the world would have been the more citizens are now busy looking over the Assessors' List of Paid Tax Payers, which has just been issued. A book will give us the ages of all the men. What it would not be a good idea to get out a book similar book for the women? A book which should give, without fear or favor, the ages of all the women in town would be extremely interesting reading.

According to the late census, the actual per capita wealth of this country is about $1,000. The wealth of the country in this neighborhood who can hardly realize this are the state of their own purse. If Superintendent Porter can get out a bulletin explaining where the proportions of these people are and how they are to get them he will prove to be a really great man as well as a philanthropist.

We you Notified?

Last Tuesday, the enactment of the last legislation of the session, and the bill that becomes a law, and on and after that date it is a penal offence to set before a great either of these articles without notifying him of the fact that they are such.

An Independent Observer.

It was refreshing to see in last Saturday's Braintree Observer, how our friend the editor of that paper showed the public that he did not understand Mr. Watson, realizing as he did that in the debate at the town meeting, "it was Mr. Watson against the house seemingly."

He states that Mr. Watson and the committee were ill used, and that bitterness and personal animosity was shown by some of the speakers. In many points the editor of the Observer is right, but in his dependence and utter disregard of those certain to-be-feared words in Braintree, which have been thought to rule the town, and which must needs have a "finger in every pie." The Observer can make no mistake in following this line, and we congratulate it upon its courage.

It Would Be Tidy.

Many residents of the town regret the crowding in of the buildings on the street line on the north side of Commercial street by the removal there of the buildings purchased of the town. With the crying need of a widening of Commercial street, that did not go along with the removal of these buildings, it is a pity that the town meeting, "it was Mr. Watson against the house seemingly."

The state that Mr. Watson and the committee were ill used, and that bitterness and personal animosity was shown by some of the speakers. In many points the editor of the Observer is right, but in his dependence and utter disregard of those certain to-be-feared words in Braintree, which have been thought to rule the town, and which must needs have a "finger in every pie." Races at the Brockton Agricultural Fair

This Fall.

The directors of the Brockton Agricultural Fair have behaved very reasonably toward owners of the fast horses in connection with their coming exhibition on Sept. 30, October 1, 2, and 3. The horses offered last year aggregated $2,500; this year will amount to $30,000. The entries will be 50, 25, 15 and 10 per cent. The horses to the depot is more than from any other place of road in the town, and is frequently so blocked as to necessitate the actual stopping of teams. It must be widen some time. What better time than now?

Labour Day.

Next Monday will be Labor Day, the day set aside by the state to honor the laborer and his vocation. Much has been said and written about the "dignity of labor," but too much cannot be said of the dignity of this mighty power which has toiled and built and made the world what it is today, full of the comforts and luxuries of life.

Whatever we have is useful, beautiful, grand or imposing of man's work upon the earth, is the result of centuries of labor.

Some of our wealthy aristocracy affect to despise the laborer but yet every private fortune in the world, no matter how enormous was produced by this same laborer, in fact there is no wealth possible that is not created directly or indirectly by the laborer.

All honor to labor! May its cause continue to be advanced by slow, moderate and conservative steps, and by wise and just legislation. Still the laborer, who is the producer of all, shall enjoy a just share of the fruits of his toil.

The Gazette is not Republican.

We have to take exceptions to the following:

The Weymouth Gazette, white in favor of Mr. Crapo for governor, thinks that Mr. Lowell is the lead in chances over any Republican candidate. We have said, and mean to pledge to the support of any one as yet, and only stated that "in the opinion of many, Crapo and Hale would make the strongest ticket the Republicans could nominate."

When the Beacon, and other papers as well as the Weymouth Gazette, for its present management is not a public paper, they will look less for the endorsement of any particular candidate of the Republican party. We endeavor to discuss fairly and independently, and to represent the great majority of our subscribers, the politics of either party, but only give a lead to the best government that can be had, and by the best men.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a sallow look; if you have a weak heart, you have a pale look; and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Good health and you will have good looks. Eat well, take exercise, get a good rest, and you will be in good condition and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp and postage paid.

Guaranteed Cure for La Griffe.

Washington Letter.

(Regular Correspondent to the Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1, 1890.

IF BLAINE WANTS TO RUN, HARRISON WILL WITHDRAW.

Secretary Foster, who has been credited with the special purpose of taking care of Mr. Harrison's campaign for nomination, has, if current talk be true, "underwritten" the full sum of which he is brotherly love which has grown and is now to be given to go to without these companies being brought together to talk over the past, enjoy the present, and swear new fidelity for the future.

Last year the Weymouth boys visited New Bedford, and too much could not be said at the time of the open arms, hearts, and minds of the next year. It is to be hoped that the return visit made to East Weymouth this year, and that visit is now record as being from start to finish an AI success.

Last Friday noon, Capt. Fahey, with the Z. L. Bicknell Hose Company, came to the engine houses on Broad street, where a second reception awaited them from Capt. Frank and members of Europa H. & L. Co. No. 2. There they were treated to a fine meal, and were given with the compliment of the host, "You are welcome."

The party from New Bedford was as follows: Capt. Geo. M. Crapo, First Lieutenant John A. Gomey and Wm. K. Wagner, E. R. Pierce, Alexander J. Allen, Samuel W. Mitchell, S. D. Peirce, and Frank Lovell, Captain of Laddie Co. No. 1; M. F. Kate, E. E. Enos, and Frank Burg, Sept. 1.

Mr. Harrison will shortly announce his withdrawal as a candidate for nomination and the administration influence will be used to make Mr. Blaine's nomination unanimous. Should the answer be in the negative, Secretary Foster will endeavor to have the next year's campaign for Mr. Harrison's personal and confidential representative, he is to confer with Mr. Blaine and endeavor to get a direct answer from that gentleman as to whether he will accept the nomination under any circumstances, and his preference for Mr. Harrison. It is noticeable that many prominent republicans who have previously opposed Mr. Blaine's presidential aspirations are now in favor of his nomination and that is what causes Mr. Harrison to believe that he will be a candidate under any circumstances, and his preference for Mr. Harrison.

The party from New Bedford was as follows: Capt. Geo. M. Crapo, First Lieutenant John A. Gomey and Wm. K. Wagner, E. R. Pierce, Alexander J. Allen, Samuel W. Mitchell, S. D. Peirce, and Frank Lovell, Captain of Laddie Co. No. 1; M. F. Kate, E. E. Enos, and Frank Burg, Sept. 1.

BASE BALL.

At North Weymouth.

The Mill Streamers, Chelmsford defeated the North Weymouth Stars Saturday in a light hitting game, only seven hits being made by both teams.

The fielding of the Mill Streamers was A1, being the best of any visiting team seen here this season.

North Weymouth's only win was a little hitting, but it fielded a game which lost the game, although a little hitting would have changed matters considerably.

Mahoney's out curse was too much for North Weymouth's heavy hitters, ten striking out and only five hits being hit to the outfield of which only two hit.

King was not far off, but his hitting was the way he fielded his position.

He was worth the price of admission, he having eight assists on ground balls.

North Weymouth showed up well in base running, Townsend stealing three, King two and F. Holbrook two, while Townsend had the Mill Streamers down to four stolen bases.

In the fourth, F. Holbrook batted.

Frynn's grounder, who stole second, went to third on Martin's double of McDonald's grounder and scored on hit by D. Mahoney.

King was caught off first, King to Doane and King assisted the next two men out at first.

In the fifth, Wyman went out at first, short stop acting; McLaughlin on a fly ball to F. Holbrook; Townsend quelled Robertson's third strike and he was safe at first; then Doane and second, and both were out at third; King, Flynn and Wyman, all easy out. Three runs after two men had been put out.

North Weymouth scored their only run in the sixth. Martin, a solid pitcher, struck out Townsend, reached first, and he was hit by King, the first one made by North Weymouths. King stole second and third, but Weymouth struck out.

In the eighth, with one out, Martin hit for two bases but did not score, Blanchard striking out and being caught stealing third. The score:

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1891.

The result of the two-night's caucus is that "Ben" is once again usual.

Vacation days are over, and the busy season of work and study is at hand.

The rain machines seem to have been successful in disturbing the elements, judging by the copious rain fall of the past week.

If the People's party nominates many such men as Mr. T. A. Watson the older parties will have to hustle around some to present a list equal to it.

It is not the best way to win, to start in with a family quarrel as the Republicans did at the caucus on Tuesday night. The Democrats look on and smile sweetly.

According to an article in our news columns, the facts for which were obtained from headquarters, the Electric railroad is to be an anomaly before "now flies." Prepare now for a general boom all along the line.

Five to Choose From.

The week has resulted in two additional to the three candidates for governor. Henry W. Robinson is the nominee of the Socialist party. The People's party at its convention on Monday, nominated Henry Wins of Malden, and the Prohibition party at its convention on Wednesday, after formulating a very strong set of resolutions, placed the name of Charles H. Kimball of Lynn on the ballot ticket.

The present indications are that the voter will be confined to five names from which to select his governor, the three as named above, and the present incumbent no doubt, and probably Mr. Allen.

Weymouth's Tax Rate.

We call the tax rate high because it is year after year, on the ascending scale, and it compares quite favorably with towns around us as will be seen by the following figures.

Hingham..... $13.00
Plymouth..... 14.00
Brantine..... 14.00
Marsfield..... 15.00
Weymouth..... 15.00
Randolph..... 16.00
Whitman..... 18.20
Holbrook..... 18.70
Rockland..... 18.80
Ashington..... 19.90
Avon..... 20.00

There is also an arrangement in the thought that this year the tax will be a number of years the rate will go the other way. In school-houses, water-works, fire-department, etc. we are most thoroughly equipped, and there is no reason why the rate may not be reduced to $14.00 or less in the next two or three years.

A Trust May Raise Subscriptions.

A type founder's trust is to be formed, so the daily papers state, representing $18,000,000 worth of trust. It will be backed by an English syndicate. All the founders of any consequence in America have joined and the smaller concerns are to be squeezed out of existence.

It may be well for us printers to follow the precedent established in Kansas. There a man contested a bill brought in by a member of a trust and the judge ruled that the trust was a combination of a combination formed to regulate prices.

But this might not work here, and certainly, we should be happy to add a few names to our subscription list this month and finish well the first year of the Weymouth Publishing Co., and thus start our year with a larger circulation. To make any object to you to subscribe now, we will give you three months and more now from next January free, dating your subscription Jan. 1st, 1892, to date your subscription Jan. 1st, 1892.

The Game Laws.

The Massachusetts Fish and Game Association has labored for to get laws passed which shall prohibit the birds until they are 60 to 70, and it is the success of its efforts. The opening dates for the shooting of the various game birds and animals of this state are as follows:

Partidge, Sept. 15 to Jan. 1; woodcock, Sept. 15 to Jan. 1; quail, Oct. 15 to Jan. 1; duck, Sept. 1 to April 15; plover, snipe and beach birds, July 15 to May 1; squirrels, hares and rabbits, Sept. 1 to March 1.

Labor Day a Disappointment.

Labor Day was about as poor a day for a holiday as could well be. The heavy rains precluded all idea of out-door sports or parades and of course everybody was disappointed.

He stated that he would accept the nomination if it should be the wish of a large majority of the party, but left with the understanding that he would do nothing to himself to it.

The complexion of our gubernatorial politics has changed somewhat in the last few weeks. Several weeks ago it looked as if Mr. Crapo was to receive an almost unanimous nomination at the hands of the Republican party, but went off to Europe last summer to put his campaign to rest.

He stated that he would accept the nomination if it should be the wish of a large majority of the party, but left with the understanding that he would do nothing to himself to it.

The complexion of this magnanimity and willingness to run a campaign on the part of Mr. Crapo, the politician, like to think things to suit themselves, have been putting in some hard work, and have succeeded in outvoting those quiet influences that were being held for Mr. Crapo and the tide of popular opinion in the party was setting so strongly Crapo, who seems to have been stayed and buried beneath the torrent projected by the Allen bombers.

It is a safe prediction that Mr. Allen will enter the convention with many more delegates pledged to his support than will his opponent, and that he will secure the nomination.

Business Outlook.

With months of depression in our business industries the most natural inquiry is, What of the future, will business be any better? The answer is, we don't know. It would certainly seem that in the near future there must be a very favorable reaction.

The public debt statement for August is the most favorable for many months. There is now piled up in the United States treasury $160,245,205 in cash. Some $30,000,000 of this is to be disbursed in September. In addition to this the inflow of gold from abroad by regular channels of trade was larger in August than for a long time previous.

The past season's crops all over the land have been larger than ever before in the history of the country, the exception being the cotton, which is the only one that of last year, while that of our only competitor, Egypt, has been quite short.

In cereals, there has never been a year of such general bounty, and everything has worked in favor of a good opening of the crops, though as yet no frosts along the coast are pending.

The foreign market for these grains must be unusually large owing to the immense shortage in other countries. Russia is a very large exporter of rice and this year her crop is 100,000,000 bushels short; this shortage will have to be supplied from our own country.

While we sympathize with others in their misfortunes, it would certainly seem that with a little caution as to over-trading and overproducing in the various lines of manufactures, this should be a year of general prosperity and abundance, with work for all.

People's Party Standard Bearers.

At a convention of the People's party held at Boston on Monday last a complete State ticket was nominated. Major Wins of Malden was the choice for Governor and William J. Shields of Boston, Lieutenant-governor.

Major Wins has served in both branches of the legislature and has well known to the governors of the state for his advocacy of the damage bill and other legislation in their behalf. He was the originator of the state law and is considered an authority on all matters of taxation. He began life as the private secretary of Charles Sumner, had for many years a member of the legislature, and was a member of the damage bill and other legislation in their behalf. NOTICE! —

The Gazette office will necessarily be closed for the next few days while the building is being moved to its new location. We have made arrangements to issue the Gazette as usual, however, next Friday, but as the work will be done in Boston, we must request all correspondents and advertisers to send in all copy by Thursday morning, as we must close the office early Friday morning at the very latest.

We hope to be ready to do work in our job department by next Thursday. Meanwhile small orders that it is important should be done before that time will be done at our East Weymouth office. Send in your orders just the same, and we will do the best we can with them.

During the moving news items, advertisements and orders for job work should be sent by mail or left at the office of A. W. Blanchard on Commercial street, or at the East Weymouth office in Jackson square.

The Hingham Fair is advertised in our paper this week and will undoubtedly receive considerable patronage from our residents.

It is customary in erecting a public building to lay the cornerstone with appropriate ceremonies. This will be in order for the new library building.

It is a good sign of the times that even the New York Democracy has the good sense to rebel against H. B. 's bossism. The independent spirit is growing everywhere.

Present indications are that both the Republicans and Democrats will have trouble in squaring their respective national platforms next year with the state platforms of this year.

Senator Peffer of Kansas says the Farmers' Alliance of that state "has largely disappeared."

From "Bloody Kansas" it has always needed the sympathy of the world but never so much as now.

Reciprocity with Canada.

The superintendent of the printing bureau of Canada shipped to the United States with $20,000 of government funds. This however does not balance the account; Canada is still our debtor.

Grover's Long Lives.

The Louisville Courier Journal says: "The People's party in Massachusetts is not yet numerous as to tread down the broad highway of politics."

Why should they tread down the bean crop? The People's party are probably as strong lovers of "Boston baked beans" as the older parties, although they don't consume so many. They are more interested just now in cultivating their own "little acorn" in hopes that a "great oak" may grow from it.

A. Draper.

The terrible and most scourge of Weymouth caused by impetuous drainage and accumulation of filth should cause the boards of health of all towns to be on the watch for the development of similar conditions. Investigation should be made into the condition of all neighborhoods, and much other matter of interest to individuals, manufacturers and others interested in public health. It will be made free to anyone addressing C. A. S. & Co., Washington, D. C.

POLITY FOR PROFIT.

Are you keeping poultry for profit, either in large or small numbers? No matter, if you keep only a dozen hens; are they paying you a profit over and above their keep and eggs and poultry used in your own family? If not, can you explain why not?

Most poultrymen keep their birds for their own domestic animals. Do you care to learn how a man of experience makes his hens pay better than $2.50 per year, for each hen, from eggs alone; and who has to pay all of his grain and meat food? Do you desire to know how to make hens lay the most eggs in a year; how to dress them; how to keep them healthy; and how to sell them? Do you desire to know how to prevent your hens through the moulting season, well and strong; how to bring your pullets to early laying; etc. Do you care to learn how to build the best poultry houses and yards economically, warm and dry? In short, do you desire to know how to make money with a few hens? If so, for the above and much more. Subscribers for one year to the Farm-Poultry, and crosses from which to get the largest number of eggs and most pounds of poultry to sell? And when and where to sell them? Do you desire to know how to prevent your hens through the moulting season, well and strong; how to bring your pullets to early laying; etc. Do you care to learn how to build the best poultry houses and yards economically, warm and dry? In short, do you desire to know how to make money with a few hens? If so, for the above and much more. THE HARRY SIDE OF LIFE.
STORIES THAT ARE TOLD BY THE
FOLLY MEN OF THE PRESS.

Between Two Devils—Look in Old Shoes—That's Why She Told It—
One Way Out of It, Etc., Etc.
"When I'm dead, as the clock struck one,
Outside I can hear the bell dog's bawl.
While her father's walking overhead,
But two evils fill me with fear,
And forthwith prepared to meet the best—
—New York Herald.

LOVE IS OLD NEWS.
Boniface—"Isn't they their old shoes up there? Were you lucky?"

Nived—"Yes; there didn't say any of them hit us."—Puck.

THAT'S WHY SHE TOLD IT.

Wife—"I can't imagine why Mrs.
Tuttle circulated that story I told her."

Husband—"You probably told her it was to be kept secret."—Tuttle Blouse.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.

Miss Trill—"I love to hear the birds sing."

Jack Phillips (warmly)—"So do I.

They never attempt a piccy beyond their ability."—Puck.

ONE WAY OUT OF IT.

"The lawyers will not get rich fighting over my will," remarked old Mr.
Seads.

"Ah!"

"No, sir; I won't make any."— Puck.

A CHANGE FOR THE WORST.

"He is awfully nice," she sobbed,
"but I can't—I can't."

"Don't you," queried her mother.

"Give up the name of Willoughby for his of Smith," was the tearful answer.—
Brooklyn Life.

WANTING AMUSEMENT.

Fat Lady (in the park)—"I am going to ride on one of the donkeys, and I'll pay for one for you if you like to accompany me."

Small Boy—"Thank you, mam, but I'd rather sit here an' laugh."—Good News.

LIEK HIM MOTHER.

Mrs. Smiley—"Our new neighbor thinks our dear little Tommy takes after Me. Do you think he does?"

Mr. Smiley—"Yes, indeed! I gave him a half dollar yesterday to get some candy and he spent every cent of it."— Good News.

PROMISES MADE IN TIME OF AFFLICTION

Many people mistake stubbornness for bravery, meanness for economy and vileness for wit.

A fellow is not a desirable thing to have, it is always on hand when you haven't."

Promises made in time of affliction require a better memory than people commonly possess.

Always hope for the best. You will never get it, so there will be no excuse for abandoning hope.

If there is anything that makes a very poor man feel sarcastic it is to read advertisement.

STRATEGY.

"Brownston has cured his wife of overthinking."

"How, for goodness sake?"

"I told her that she looked prettier with her mouth closed, and now she can hardly be induced to utter a syllable."—
Detroit Free Press.

AN EFFICIENT REMEDY.

"I'm a good deal troubled with bleeding at the nose. What will prevent it, doctor?" asked a notorious Detroit Paul Pray.

"Well, keeping it out of other people's business is a very good way. Two doctors, please."—Detroit Free Press.

CONCERNING THE HOME PLATE.

Mr. Rooter (after luncheon)—"That last night of ours made a good baseball ball run, Marie."

Mr. Rooter—"Baseball run? What do you mean?"

Mr. Rooter—"I'm! It made the round of its base-hat, warmed-up, cold and—hash!"—Judge.

HAD THEM IN STOCK.

Would-be Contributor (to Editor):—
"What do you pay for the little cards of reg. you put on the back of your envelope you enclose with rejected contributions?"

Editor—"They cost us about three dollars a thousand."

Would-be Contributor—"I'll let you have a thousand cheaper than that,"— Judge.

ALARMING SYMPTOM.

Mr. Squalls—"Oo, George, arise instantly. I fear something terrible is going to happen to you."

Mr. Squalls—"What's the row?"

Mr. Squalls—"He has fallen into a quarrel with the—"

Mr. Squalls—"For goodness sake!—
Telephone the doctor."—Minneapolis Journal.

APPLYING AT HEADQUARTERS.

"I understand that we have been attending the lectures on 'First Aid to the Injured,' Miss Rosalie," said the young man.

"Yes," answered the sweet girl.

"Can—can't tell me," whispered the youth, drawing a little nearer, "what you would do for a bro—broken heart!"

—Truth.

IT WOULD VIOLATE HIS PRINCIPLES.

Judge—"The jury has convicted you of murder in the first degree. Have you anything to say why sentence should not be death?"

Prisoner—"Most certainly I have. I was always conscientiously opposed to capital punishment, and after all these years I'll be hanged if I ascent to it."—
Detroit Free Press.

GETTING ALONG NICELY.

There is a bright Bohemian in this city whose appearance has for some time made his friends anxious about him.

"How are you getting along, Smithson?" asked one of his acquaintances.

"Fine rate; better than I have expected," he answered in a tone of exultation.

"Gaining in weight?"

"Yes, I've got $60 saved toward my funeral expenses."—Washington Post.

EXCUSING THIS TIME.

Schooldam (with ominous look in her eyes)—"What made you so late, Thomas Blaine?"

Thomas—"Beating fighting."

Schooldam (advancing furiously)—
"You have, eh?"

Thomas—"Yes, ma'am. A boy said you was ugly as home-made sin, an' I just had to teach him a lesson."

Schooldam—"Well, Thomas, dear I'll have to pardon you this time, but control your temper the best you can."

BLOCKHEADS FOR SALE.

When Lord Thurlow first opened a lawyer's office in London he took a basement room and a picture gallery occupied by a cobweb. He was soon annoyed by the fact that he had few of his own. One day an Irishman entered.

"The cobble's gone, I see," he said.

"I should think so," said the lawyer.

"I've got $600 to sell," he said.

"I'll give you $500," said the lawyer.

"I'll give you $500," responded Thurlow.

"Bogor," said Pat, "ye must be doing."

Raising Poultry in Cuba.

Poland, and to some extent, raised in Cuba. In the streets of Havana, the most of the worst-looking specimens of poultry one could imagine, living, as most of them do, on the refuse matter about the marketplaces. There is a lack of the bright red comb and healthy, cleanly appearance of farmyard stock. On the contrary, the poultry found some of our leading breeds. There is a field of this industry rightly managed, in that most instances they may be said to owe their origin to some neglect in early childhood.

BONANZA FIELDS.

The discovery of rich placer-mines in the neighborhood of El Dorado, Washington, makes it evident that the gold mines of the country are not the only ones that are to be found in the state.
